
WIN C. TURNER, PH.D. LADC

Education

- Ph.D. 1997, New School for Social Research, Clinical Psychology, Albany
Medical Center, Stratton VA Hospital - Internship
- M.A. 1994, New School for Social Research
- B.A. 1983, The Colorado College
- Licenses VT, Ph.D. Clinical Psychologist
VT, Alcohol and Drug Counselor
- Certifications National Trainer & Clinical Supervisor: Motivational Enhancement
Therapy/Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
Trainer: Global Appraisal of Individual Needs

Professional Experience:

Partner, Evidence Based Solutions LLC. (July 2008 – Present)

Primary evaluator on ROSC grant funded 9/09. Consultation services throughout North America to assist in the development, training, evaluation, supervision and implementation of evidence based psychosocial treatment interventions. Ongoing projects include: Motivational Interviewing – VT DCF, VA Hospital, SBIRT – Missouri, MET CBT – OJJDP/CSAT
Special focus on co-occurring disorders, youth and families, motivational enhancement and cognitive behavior therapies.

Clinical Psychologist, Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center (DHMC), Addiction Treatment Program. (June 2005 –July 2008) Assistant Faculty of Psychiatry, Dartmouth Medical School.

Clinical Program Director to deliver interventions through DHMC Department of Psychiatry. Developed and directed all aspects of the DHMC addiction treatment program for a new academic hospital based intensive outpatient program. Responsible for designing and implementing evidence based interventions, staff supervision, patient care and program evaluation.

Youth and Family Treatment Consultant and Training Faculty, National Drug Court Institute, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), and the New England Institute of Addiction Studies (1999– current).

Consultant responsible for developing, implementing, and assisting human service providers deliver evidence-based systems of care for youth and families throughout the United States. National trainer & clinical supervisor for CSAT's multi-state community implementation of MET – CBT. Author of the Vermont Dept of Health: Division of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Program's Youth Treatment Guidelines now utilized by many state systems. Conduct site visits, write summary reports, and develop recommendations leading to more effective treatment services for youth and families..

Principle Investigator on Vermont based CSAT effective adolescent treatment grants and responsible for assisting treatment providers, writing treatment guidelines, training management and clinical staff, collaborating with state agencies, evaluating "best practices," clinical staff supervision, and creating new programs.

Faculty responsible for a diverse set of training needs focused co-occurring disorders and evidence based substance abuse/mental health treatment. Lectures and technical assistance selected for statewide, regional, and national conferences.

Clinical Psychologist, Montpelier Parks Program, Woodside Detention Center, Northlands Job Corp Center, University of Vermont-Wellness Center: Private Practice, Montpelier, VT (1999 – Present: part- time).

Provide clinical mental health/substance abuse treatment services to rural community youth and adults. Receive referrals through court diversion, local schools, department of human services, vocational rehabilitation, and university wellness centers. Responsible for all aspects of treatment – screening, assessment, treatment matching, and follow-up, as well as training staff on co-occurring treatment protocols.

Senior Advisor, Youth and Family Substance Abuse/Mental Health, American Institutes for Research (2003 – 2004 part-time)

Provided technical assistance to system of care communities involving services to families, children, adolescents and young adults with or at risk of emotional, behavioral, substance or academic problems. Applied experience and expertise in substance abuse/mental health program development, implementation, and evaluation including: giving technical assistance on dual diagnosis; building consensus for change; designing effective demonstration projects; planning and conducting data analyses; preparing technical reports, scholarly articles, and other documents; and presenting research results to sponsoring agencies, professionals, and other consumers.

Mental Health Program Coordinator, Counseling Service of Addison County, Middlebury, VT. (1997 – 1999).

Program director of adolescent treatment programs, including group/individual, substance abuse, and adventure-based therapy. Responsibilities included implementing policy, supervising staff, individual therapy, assessment and managing grants. Wrote and received three federal/state grant awards for primary prevention and treatment activities.

Clinical Psychology Extern & Intern, Stratton VA Hospital, Albany Medical Center (1994 – 1996).

Clinical psychology intern assisting in clinical rotations primarily focused on outpatient and inpatient alcohol and drug dependency treatment units. Responsibilities included assessment and intake interviews, drug testing procedures, leading groups, and individual therapy.

Graduate Student Advisor, New School for Social Research, New York, NY (1992 – 1994).

Responsible for academic counseling, teaching assistance, tutoring, emotional counseling, and organizing community functions.

Science Teacher/Outdoor Educator, The White Mountain School, Littleton, NH (1985-1989).

Taught psychology, chemistry, advanced biology, and directed outdoor adventure programs for adolescent boarding school. Responsibilities included dormitory supervisor, community service director, and adventure-based counselor.

Outdoor Instructor/Group Leader, Hurricane Island Outward Bound School, Rockland, ME (1984-1985).

Directed and lead month-long wilderness treatment courses for adults and adolescents. Specialized treatment focus on group dynamics and confidence-building exercises.

Research Interests

Youth and Family Treatment of Substance & Mental Health Disorders

Science to Service: Treatment Implementation Projects

Dual Disorders in Youth – Designing and Implementing Effective Treatment

Bibliography

Turner, W. & Muck, R. et al. Co-occurring Disorders in the Adolescent Mental Health and Substance Abuse Treatment Systems. Journal of Psychoactive Drugs, 36 (4): 455-462.

Turner, W. Adolescent substance abuse treatment in the United States. Evaluation and Program Planning, 27: 115-117.

Turner, W. Guidelines for the Development of Vermont's Adolescent Treatment System. Vermont Department of Health, Alcohol and Drug Abuse Programs, 1-36. (2003).

Turner, W. & Porter, G., (under review). Taking charge: A family guide to selecting effective treatment. SAMHSA, 1-20.

Meuser, K., Drake, R., McGovern, M. & Turner, W. (2006) Comorbid Substance Abuse and Psychiatric Disorders. In: Miller, W. R. ed. Combating the Troublesome Use of Substances: CACTUS.

Turner, W. & McGovern, M., (in preparation). Co-occurring substance use and psychiatric disorders among adolescents: Findings from a rural community addiction treatment system.

Research Funding

State of Vermont: Vocational Rehabilitation Services - $6000 community therapeutic outdoor program development grant (2008) Coordinator Psychologist

Adolescent Treatment Programs CSAT, 275,000 (2006-2009) , Consultant Trainer

Effective Adolescent Treatment: CSAT, $275,000 (2003-2005), Principal Investigator

Community Action Grant: CSAT, $150,000 (2001-2002), Principle Investigator

Action Planning Grant: CSAT, $100,000 (2001-2002), Win C. Turner, Consultant

Intensive Youth Treatment: OJJDP, $60,000 (1997-1999), Win C. Turner, Principle Investigator

Community Outdoor Treatment: CTF, $40,000 (1997-1999), Win C. Turner, Principle Investigator

Professional references available upon request

http://enhancing-peer-review.nih.gov/docs/application_changes.pdf